School News

13th May 2014

From the Head - We're rugby mad at Yellowwoods this week. Thank you to Dennis and Cindy Caldwell for their very thoughtful and generous contribution to our rugby season. They sponsored RuggaBuggers who have been working hard with our boys and our coaches for the past two days. (Rugga Buggers are affiliated with Rugga Kids, and their aim is to teach children from the ages of 2-10 a healthy and safe way to enjoy the sport.)

Aunty Eve broke her wrist on the tennis court last week and is recovering at home this week. We look forward to her return on Monday.

A very BIG thank you to Mr Justin Mildenhall for donating a gorgeous new tractor to Yellowwoods. It has already been put to good use.

Enjoy the rest of your week.

Nicole

Yellowwoods will be participating in Tekkie Tax 2014.

On the 30th May pupils are encouraged to wear their bright green laces with purple tags in support of CHOC.

Laces will be distributed to kids at school and R20.00 will be debited to your school accounts. Permission slip will be sent home shortly. All funds raised will go to CHOC.

Pre Primary News

We are missing Aunty Eve and can't wait for her to return on Monday. Get well soon Aunty Eve!

We have been focusing on opposites as our theme this week. On Thursday we would like to have a pyjama day and will be making breakfast for little Chefs. Please dress your little ones from Gr 000 - Gr R in their warmest pyjamas.

The Grade 000 and 00 theme for next week is Space.
